Governing Council Annual General Meeting
Wednesday 20\textsuperscript{th} February 2013 at 7:00pm

Dear Parents/Carers,

The AGM will be held in the Library directly following the Acquaintance Night and will begin at 7:00pm. Your involvement with the school by nominating to be part of our Governing Council is warmly welcomed.

The Governing Council is formed from elected parent, staff and community representatives to work with the school’s leadership in a governance capacity. At the Annual General Meeting (AGM) the Annual Report will be tabled and an election held to fill Governing Council vacancies.

There are four vacancies to be filled this year with Michelle Butcher, Kristy Dawson, Rachel Robinson and Kym Wilson having completed their two-year terms. Kain Noack, Diane Sullivan, Michelle van Wyk, Silvio Varricchio and Tanya Wolverton each have one more year to complete. Marijka Ryan (community member – Campbelltown City Council) and Gay Walsh/Carol Ferris (staff) were also Governing Council members in 2012. On behalf of the school community I would like to thank all 2012 Governing Council members for their efforts in governing the school. I would like to give a special mention and thanks to Rachel Robinson for her eight continuous years of service as minute secretary. I look forward to a continued effective association with the 2013 Governing Council.

A free crèche, nibbles and refreshments will be available at the AGM. Please do not send children to the crèche without advising beforehand on the accompanying form.

Please return the accompanying nomination form to the front office by COB Tuesday 19\textsuperscript{th} February 2013. To assist us in organisation please indicate your intended attendance at the AGM and if applicable crèche requirements on the accompanying form.

Yours sincerely
